The full report is located in our Administrative offices and will be distributed to anyone who may make a request for the document. Violence against Woman Act

The following document has been designed to inform all students and employees of the Violence Against Women Act and outlines Keune Academy by 124's commitment to the health and safety of its students and employees. This annual disclosure document is done each year by contacting the local police department and the building management to compile the statistics used in the report. This document explains the school's policy regarding crime and prevention, public safety, and criminal reporting procedures. This document will also be provided to all prospective students and staff and will be reviewed with all students during orientation and with staff at the time of hire. The school will also provide a yearly training in October of each year when the new statistics are available. The training promotes awareness and prevention of rape, acquaintance rape, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking, and also outlines options for reducing the risk of such offenses occurring, the warning signs of abusive behavior, and how to avoid potential attacks. Please read this document carefully and ask questions if you feel confused or uncertain.

Domestic Violence

Domestic violence as a pattern of abusive behavior in any relationship that is used by one partner to gain or maintain power and control over another intimate partner. Domestic violence can be physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of actions that influence another person. This includes any behaviors that intimidate, manipulate, humiliate, isolate, frighten, terrorize, coerce, threaten, blame, hurt, injure, or wound someone.

Physical Abuse: Hitting, slapping, shoving, grabbing, pinching, biting, hair pulling, etc are types of physical abuse. This type of abuse also includes denying a partner medical care or forcing alcohol and/or drug use upon him or her.

Sexual Abuse: Coercing or attempting to coerce any sexual contact or behavior without consent. Sexual abuse includes, but is certainly not limited to, marital rape, attacks on sexual parts of the body, forcing sex after physical violence has occurred, or treating one in a sexually demeaning manner.

Emotional Abuse: Undermining an individual's sense of self-worth and/or self-esteem is abusive. This may include, but is not limited to constant criticism, diminishing one's abilities, name-calling, or damaging one's relationship with his or her children.

Economic Abuse: Is defined as making or attempting to make an individual financially dependent by maintaining total control over financial resources, withholding one's access to money, or forbidding one's attendance at school or employment.

Psychological Abuse: Elements of psychological abuse include - but are not limited to - causing fear by intimidation; threatening physical harm to self, partner, children, or partner's family or friends; destruction of pets and property; and forcing isolation from family, friends, or school and/or work.

Domestic violence can happen to anyone regardless of race, age, sexual orientation, religion, or gender. Domestic violence affects people of all socioeconomic backgrounds and education levels. Domestic violence occurs in both opposite-sex and same-sex relationships and can happen to intimate partners who are married, living together, or dating.

Domestic violence not only affects those who are abused, but also has a substantial effect on family members, friends, co-workers, other witnesses, and the community at large. Children, who grow up witnessing domestic violence, are among those seriously affected by this crime. Frequent exposure to violence in the home not only predisposes children to numerous social and physical problems, but also teaches them that violence is a normal way of life - therefore, increasing their risk of becoming society's next generation of victims and abusers.

National Domestic Violence Hotline: 1-800-799-7233

Sexual Assault

Sexual assault is any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient. Consent means that both people engaging in the sexual encounter must agree to it, and either person may decide at any time that he or she no longer consents and wants to stop the activity. Consenting to one behavior does not obligate you to consent to any other behavior. Consenting means only that, at this particular time, you would like to engage in this particular sexual behavior. Falling under the definition of sexual assault are sexual activities as forced sexual intercourse, forcible sodomy, child molestation, incest, fondling and attempted rape.

Dating Violence

Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim is dating violence. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

- The length of the relationship
- The type of relationship
- The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship

Stalking

Stalking is a pattern of repeated and unwanted attention, harassment, contact, or any other course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to feel fear. Stalking can include:

- Repeated, unwanted, intrusive, and frightening communications from the perpetrator by phone, mail, and/or email.
- Repeatedly leaving or sending victim unwanted items, presents, or flowers.
- Following or lying in wait for the victim at places such as home, school, work, or recreation place.
- Making direct or indirect threats to harm the victim, the victim's children, relatives, friends, or pets.
- Damaging or threatening to damage the victim's property.
- Harassing victim through the internet.
- Posting information or spreading rumors about the victim on the internet, in a public place, or by word of mouth.
- Obtaining personal information about the victim by accessing public records, using internet search services, hiring private investigators, going through the victim's garbage, following the victim, contacting victim's friends, family work, or neighbors, etc.

If you are a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, or stalking at this school or off the school premises your first priority should be to get to a safe place. You should then obtain necessary medical treatment. In the event of a rape or sexual violence on campus:

- a) Remain calm.
- b) Calm the victim; notify the Director of Education, Administrative Services or General Manager.
- c) Inform the victim that he or she has the option to notify the appropriate law enforcement authorities, including the local police, and for medical assistance. If the victim would like the Director of Education, Administrative Services or General Manager to notify the authorities, he or she will call 911 for medical assistance and to alert the police.
- d) The school and the police strongly advocate that a victim of sexual assault, domestic violence, or dating violence report the incident in a timely manner. Time is a critical factor for evidence collection and preservation. Filing a police report will ensure that a victim receives the necessary medical treatment and test, at no expense, that he or she needs. It is important to preserve evidence for the proof of a criminal offense, so do not disturb the area surrounding the incident.
- e) The school encourages victims of sex offenses to seek professional counseling. The school will ensure that the victim has access to free, confidential counseling from counselors specifically trained in areas of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and crisis intervention. If you need to seek professional help after having been the victim of a rape, sexual assault, domestic violence, or dating violence, you can contact the School's Office of Student Services, or you can also contact one of the following counseling centers.

New Beginnings Counseling
 1585 Old Norcross Rd. Suite 203
 (770) 831-1799

- f) If a student is alleged to having committed a sex offense, that student will have the right to prompt, fair, and impartial investigation before any action takes place. The standard of proof in this case requires clear and convincing evidence that the incident more than likely occurred. A student found guilty of violating the school’s sexual misconduct policy could be criminally prosecuted in the state courts and may be placed on probation, suspended, or expelled from the school for the first offense.

Note: The school will protect the confidentiality of the victim(s) in accordance with the law. In addition, the Educational Director, Administrative Services and General Manager will maintain any records of the incident. Only staff members who need to know will be apprised of the name(s) of the victim(s). The school is required to publish each year’s statistics for certain crimes that are reported to the school authorities or local police agencies, including incidents and not the names of identifiable information about the victim.

Sexual Assault Prevention and Response

Keune Academy by 124 prohibits sexual assault by its students or employees on its property or as a part of its activities. Sexual Assault is defined as:

Sexual Assault I: Rape, forcible sodomy, or forcible sexual penetration of another person's anal or genital opening with any object. These acts must be committed either by force, threat, intimidation, or through the use of victim's mental or physical incapacitation, of which the accused was aware, or reasonably should have been aware.

Sexual Assault II: The touching of an unwilling person's intimate parts (defined as genitalia, groin, breasts, or buttocks, or clothing covering them) or forcing an unwilling person to touch another's intimate parts. These acts must be committed either by force, threat, intimidation, or through the victim's mental or physical incapacitation, of which the accused was aware of, or reasonably should have been aware.

This policy applies to all students and employees. Students or employees who violate this policy will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action which may include counseling, disciplinary probation, suspension, expulsion, and referral to the proper law enforcement authorities for prosecution. The accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during a campus disciplinary proceeding and both the accuser and the accused shall be informed of the outcome of any campus disciplinary proceeding brought alleging a sexual assault. All disciplinary appeals presently applicable to student will continue to be available for violation of the policy.

The purpose of this policy is to produce a campus environment that discourages sexual assault. The following is information that is important for each student to read and understand regarding the legal penalties associated with sexual assault

Response

If you are a victim of a sexual assault at this institution, your first priority should be to get to a place of safety. You should then obtain necessary medical treatment. Keune Academy by 124 strongly advocates that a victim of sexual assault report the incident in a timely manner. Time is a critical factor for evidence collection and preservation. An Assault should be reported directly to the Administrative offices:

|---------------------------|-----------------|------------------------|
| General Manager | Alan Van Hassel | 678-990-0762 ext: 4224 |
| Financial Aid Director | Krystal Self | 678-990-0762 ext: 4227 |
| Student Services Director | Rachel Galindo | 678-990-0762 ext: 4226 |

Filing a report with administration of the school will not obligate the victim to prosecute, nor will it subject the victim to scrutiny or judgmental opinions from anyone at the school staff or administration. Filing of a Police report with Gwinnett County Police Department will require proceeding of prosecution. Gwinnett County Police Department: 911, (770) 513-5000. If the student ultimately decides not to report the assault to the police, it is still very important to seek medical attention immediately for possible internal injuries or sexually transmitted diseases. Also, the collection of medical evidence becomes critical in the event of prosecution. Therefore, it is important to seek medical attention promptly and to refrain from:

1. Taking a shower or washing any part of the body.
2. Douching.
3. Brushing your teeth.
4. Drinking liquids.
5. Changing clothes or changing sheets before seeking medical help.

This will prevent the destruction of valuable evidence. At the Emergency Room, the doctor will collect hair samples, and other evidence, including clothing. (A victim should bring a change of clothing to wear home). The police will be contacted to take possession of the samples until the victim makes a decision about whether or not to press charges

Reporting to the Police

A student who has been sexually assaulted deserves the right to a complete professional investigation before making a decision about how to proceed with the case. When the administrative person or persons are contacted a representative of the school will:

1. Guide the victim through the available options and support the victim in his or her decision.
2. Complete necessary procedures to protect against loss of evidence.
3. Transport the victims to Gwinnett Medical Center Hospital.
4. Advise students where to receive counseling outside of the facility.

A follow-up investigation is conducted with administration and owners. The results are discussed with the student along with rights and options. The victim's identity is kept confidential. The Gwinnett County Police Department may also be involved. Even if the assailant is not identified and prosecuted, reporting the assault is a way to regain a sense of personal power and control by enabling the victim to do something about the crime committed. Furthermore, information provided helps in the prevention of rape and the protection of other potential victims. (Most rapists are repeat offenders).

Sexual Offender Registration:

The campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act (CSCPA) of 2000 is a Federal Law that provides for the tracking of convicted sex offenders enrolled at, or employed by, higher institutions. The CSCPA is an amendment to the Jacob Wetterling Crimes Against Children and Offender Act. The federal law requires state law enforcement agencies to provide Keune Academy by 124 a list of registered sex offenders who have indicated that they are enrolled or employed at Keune Academy by 124.

Keune Academy by 124 is required to inform the campus students and employees that a registration list of sex offenders will be maintained and available in the Administrative offices on campus.

In addition, a list of all registered sex offenders in Georgia is available from the Georgia Bureau of Investigation at www.gbi.georgia.gov. Click on Services and then click on Georgia Sex Offender Registry.

Keune Academy by 124 is located in Gwinnett County and the zip code is 30043.

The CSCPA further amends the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) to clarify that nothing in the act can prohibit an educational institution from disclosing information provided to the institution concerning registered sex offenders.

LOCAL, STATE & FEDERAL LEGAL SANCTIONS:

Legal Sanctions- Laws Governing Alcohol

Georgia Alcoholic Beverage Control Law.

All states prohibit persons from selling or giving any alcoholic beverage to a minor (defined in Georgia as under age 21) or to a person who is already intoxicated. It is also an offense in Georgia punishable by fine of up to $200 and/or imprisonment for up to 5 days, to misrepresent the age of a minor for the purpose of inducing the sale of an alcoholic beverage. Any minor who uses false identification or the identification of another person to purchase an alcoholic beverage can be convicted and fined up to $100 and/or sentenced to probation for up to one year. In addition, a minor can be arrested and fined up to $50 for possessing an alcoholic beverage with the intent to consume it.

Legal Sanctions Under Georgia and Federal Law Concerning Drugs and Alcohol

Under Georgia and federal law, it is a crime to possess, manufacture, sell, or distribute illegal drugs. As required by federal regulations, you may view charts detailing federal penalties for marijuana trafficking, federal penalties for drug trafficking, and the state drug law summary.

Federal sanctions for the illegal possession of drugs include imprisonment up to 1 year and/or a minimum fine of $1,000 for a first conviction; imprisonment for 15 days-2 years and a minimum fine of $2,500 for a second drug conviction; and imprisonment for 90 days-3 years and a minimum fine of $5,000 for a third or subsequent drug conviction. For possession of a mixture or substance which contains a cocaine base, federal sanctions include 5-20 years in prison and a minimum fine of $1,000, for a first conviction if the mixture or substance exceeds 5 grams, for a second conviction if the mixture or substance exceeds 3 grams, and for a third or subsequent conviction if the mixture or substance exceeds 1 gram. Additional possible penalties for the illegal possession of drugs are forfeiture of real or personal property used to possess or to facilitate possession of a controlled substance if the offense is punishable by more than 1 year imprisonment; forfeiture of vehicles, boats, aircraft, or any other conveyance used, or intended for use, to transport or conceal drugs; civil fine up to $10,000 per violation; denial of federal benefits, such as student loans, grants, contracts, and professional and commercial licenses for up to 1 year for a first and up to 5 years for a second or subsequent offense; successful completion of a drug treatment program; community service; and ineligibility to receive or purchase a firearm.

Georgia law prohibits the purchase or possession of alcohol by a person under the age of 21, or the furnishing of alcohol to such a person. Driving under the influence of alcohol or other drugs also is illegal. It is against Georgia law, under certain circumstances, to walk or be upon a roadway while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs. The punishment for these offenses may include imprisonment, payment of a fine, mandatory treatment and education programs, community service, and mandatory loss of one's driver's license.

Federal Law

Federal drug laws parallel Georgia's drug laws in many respects. For example, it is a federal offense to manufacture, distribute, or possess with intent to distribute, a controlled substance or a counterfeit controlled substance. As under the Georgia penal code, any property associated with the unlawful handling of controlled substance may be forfeited to the authorities. Federal law also provides that a person age 18 or older who distributes a controlled substance to a person 21 years of age may be sentenced to a term of imprisonment and/or fine of up to twice the amount authorized for distribution to a person over the age of 21.

An important sanction under federal law is that persons convicted of any federal or state offense involving possession of a controlled substance are ineligible to receive any or all federal benefits (e.g., social security, student loans) for up to one year. If the offense involves distribution of a controlled substance, the guilty person could be ineligible for any or all federal benefits for up to 5 years.

There are both federal and state laws specifically dealing with the distribution or manufacturing of controlled substances in or near schools or colleges. For example, federal law provides that a drug offense committed within 1000 feet of school property, including universities, is punishable by a term of imprisonment and a fine of up to twice the amount authorized for the same offense committed away from school property.

A Violation of any law regarding drugs and alcohol is also a violation of Keune Academy by 124's Student Rules and Responsibilities code of conduct and will be treated as a separate disciplinary matter by the school.
